

O. and A. Railway Deserves Help.

It is strictly in line with good policy and Oakland's best interests and the hastening of its commercial development that every aid and facility should be given to the Oakland and Antioch Electric railway to secure a right of way through the northern section of the city and access to the water front on the southern side of the Key Route basin which the municipality has started to improve for commercial uses. The organization of an auxiliary electric railway corporation paves the way for the accomplishment of this object. The franchise which it is seeking to make possible the carrying out of this purpose should be freely granted.

On general principles the more railroads we have terminating on our water front, the more certain Oakland is of attaining the pre-eminent commercial position which nature has destined it should occupy by virtue of its location and the magnificent water front which it possesses capable of accommodating an unlimited commerce and from the ocean and bay and river points.

The Oakland and Antioch railway gives promise of attracting commerce to the municipal wharves to be constructed on the western water front as soon as they are ready for business. It traverses the richest and most extensive agricultural section of Contra Costa county, the people and products of which have so far had no direct outlet to this city, or the bay shore. And what is of equal, if not greater importance it promises to serve us a medium for the carrying on of a return trade by our own merchants and distributing agents which has not been hitherto possible. These are all impelling reasons why Oakland should give every encouragement to the perfect development of this new electric railway system and afford to it every reasonable facility it requires for the consummation of its plans.

It is reported that the republics of Colombia, Ecuador and Venezuela contemplate consolidating into one nation. Such a union would place the northern coast of South America under the control of one government. But the perpetuation of such a union, if consummated, is wholly improbable. The temperament of the people of the three republics is too mercurial to foster faith in the possibility of a peaceful unity. Each republic has been the scene of periodical revolution in the past, and they have been frequently at war with one another. The same spirit of unrest which controls them now, would soon cause dissension in the consolidated states, followed by an early rupture of the union and its return to its original political elements.

It is intimated that the commercial development of San Leandro bay and the reclamation of a large area of marsh land on its shores, where the Leona chemical works of F. M. Smith are located, will be one of the results of the merger accomplished through the organization of the United Properties Company. All the better for Oakland, if this happens, for it will add to Oakland's commercial and industrial importance and wealth—a result to be devoutly welcomed.

The rainstorm has produced the usual disturbance of railroad traffic in the State in spots. But that is a minor ill, at which everybody can afford to smile; for the railroad corporations will be amply compensated by the greater harvest which they will be called upon to move later in the year as the washouts have been caused by a generous rain that assures abundant crops.

It is in order to revive the phrase—"the farmers are jubilant." No Californian would be happy if the winter season should pass without an opportunity being offered to use it.

Timely and Welcome Rainstorm.

The welcome rainstorm, which set in about midnight Sunday, doubtless injured the financial interests of the San Francisco aviation meet and reduced the revenues of its promoters and it may have changed the views of some of the aviators regarding our incomparable atmosphere which, from their first day's experience, they enthusiastically pronounced as being, from a professional air-man's viewpoint, equal to that of the Mediterranean. If the meet had been held two or three weeks earlier the visiting aviators would have continued to cherish that idea, and would have so advertised it wherever they went, for December, 1910, was a dry month throughout. The rainstorm camped their ardor, no doubt, for it interfered with their plans and, probably, with their pocketbooks. But that does not affect the general result. California's mid-winter climate will still hold its own against the Mediterranean shores or any other part of the world.

To the California farmer, stock-raiser and horticulturist this week's rainstorm has been a godsend. It came in the nick of time, laden with millions of dollars of benefit to grain and grass crops and assures the future harvest of the orchards and vineyards, not to speak of the truck farmers and gardeners and the interests of miners and others dependent on a generous water supply. For every mill of loss to the promoters of the aviation meet and the professional aviators this week's storm has contributed thousands of dollars of gain to the producers and merchants of California.

December was a dry month, but suited the wants of the merchant-class and the public generally to the dot. It could not have been better had it been possible to make it to order. Merchants of all classes enjoyed a holiday trade more profitable than any experienced in many years. People had money to spend as the result of a year of unprecedented prosperity and they were rejoiced at the opportunity which the weather afforded them to carry out their holiday plans to the best advantage.

But, after the holiday season was over and absence of rain continued, anxiety for the coming harvest season, as the result of the continued drought, took the place of elation. Reports from the agricultural districts gave cause for alarm. Another week of dry weather would have changed the whole prospect in the agricultural and horticultural districts, for the pastures were shriveling and livestock beginning to suffer, the growth of the young grain shoots was being retarded and the mining and power and water-supply companies were facing a crisis. The welcome rainstorm altered the whole aspect of affairs, as if by the touch of a magician's wand. Every interest has been revived. Continued prosperity is assured by it to all. Crops of all kinds have been saved. Merchants may now look ahead with a degree of confidence for another year of profitable trade. Every one has genuine cause for thankfulness for the timely visitation, or the rainfall has been generous all over the State. We can well afford to submit to any personal discomforts growing out of the storm, in view of the enormous benefits which it has brought to us.

Periodical Attack on Mare Island.

There ought not to be a moment's hesitation in the minds of the Senate Committee on Commerce regarding the propriety of retaining in the rivers and harbors bill a sufficient appropriation to keep the channel through San Pablo bay open to Mare Island navy yard for the safe passage of the largest armored cruiser or battleship in the navy. The largest and best naval dry dock on the Pacific Coast is located at the island. It took many years and the expenditure of a vast sum of money to build it. It is not long since it was completed and formally opened with appropriate ceremonies or practical service. The event was the cause of popular solicitation in all the bay cities and a source of hearty congratulation among naval officers in general.

Whether or not the federal government intends sooner or later constructing an auxiliary naval dock and repair yard at some point on the eastern shore of San Francisco bay, the carrying out of such a plan should not mean the abandonment in any sense of Mare Island navy yard. That would be a superlative act of folly. It has taken a half century to develop the navy yard and bring it up to its present stage of efficiency. Unfriendly attacks that have been made on the navy yard site from time to time have been repeatedly negated by boards of experts who have uniformly approved the wisdom of its selection. In every case, it has turned out that the unfriendly attack originated in a source controlled wholly by selfish and not patriotic interests.

The only drawback that can be possibly said to exist to Mare Island's utility is the tendency of the San Pablo bay channel shoaling in the neighborhood of Point Pinole and that occasional dredging is needed to keep it open. There are few naval dockyards in existence that are free from a similar drawback. Approaches to the best of them, wherever located, will occasionally shoal and must be dredged. It is the natural result of the workings of natural agencies. The problem of keeping open the approaches to Mare Island navy yard is a simple one, easy and not expensive to solve, but every time the operation of dredging becomes necessary to maintain a sufficient depth of water in these approaches and an appropriation is asked from Congress to carry out the work the heads of some interested obstructionist instantly bobs up and causes trouble by foolish and unwarranted protest.

PROBLEM OF DIVORCE

According to the census of 1890, there was a married population in the United States of 22,447,769 with an annual average of 33,191 divorces. That is, there was one divorce to every 676 of married population. According to the census of 1900, there was a married population of 27,770,101, with an annual divorce record of 55,502, or one divorce to every 500 of married population. Between 1887 and 1906 the record of divorces reaches the amazing total of 946,026. Nearly a million American marriages went to pieces in twenty years. That is, disruption overtook 47,281 marriage, a year, 394 a month—more than 120 a day.

No one section of the country produces a much larger divorce crop than another. Louisiana, with its large Catholic population, Mormon Utah, and Unitarian Massachusetts furnish similar figures. Broadly speaking, the divorce rate rises as we cross the map westward, but on the whole, the rate is far from even throughout the country. The rate is slightly larger in cities than in the country, but divorce is by no means a city problem.

It is astonishing to find that divorce laws, stringent or liberal, affect the rate very slightly. New Hampshire, Utah, and South Dakota show almost exactly the same proportion of divorces per population and per marriage. New York with its one cause for divorce and New Jersey with its half-dozen causes show a rate nearly identical.

The solution of our divorce problem lies in securing a better relation between men and women in every department of life. It is an anomaly in this republic that there should be any distinctions on account of sex. It is absurd that women should receive lower wages than men for equal work performed or equal services given. It is unfair to deny women their share in public housekeeping. It is unjust to tax them and at the same time refuse them citizenship.

American women are as well educated as intelligent, as rural, as conscientious, and, within their opportunities, as efficient as American men. Once this is fully recognized; once the last vestige of sex prejudice and sex contempt vanishes from custom and from the state books; once the same standard of morals is recognized in society as it is in the law, once it is made at least as easy for women as for men to earn an honorable living, one marriage on absolutely equal terms is made possible—no moral or physical advantage on the side of the husband, no parasitism allowed on the part of the wife.

Then it will be perfectly safe to attach a divorce coupon to every marriage certificate, with permission for both parties to tear it if a flat will.—Forum.

FARMING IN ALASKA

About 35,000 white persons are living in Alaska, most of them miners. The time is coming when there will be thousands of white farmers in the territory and they will have a home market for all the food they produce for man and beast.

At present miners grow in Alaska at a dollar apiece, cucumbers about 50 cents each, cucumbers brought from Seattle and shipped inland in winter $300 a ton, while potatoes, onions, flour and other such articles often bring about a dollar a pound over the counter. The cost of all supplies is so enormous that wages must be very high, and consequently it does not pay to work any except the richer strikes or placer gold. It is now known that the mineral prospects of lower value aggregate vastly more wealth than the rich claims, but they must remain unworked until a cheaper supply of food makes lower wages possible.

It is true that miners do not now extend into the interior and that they will be supplemented by good wagon roads, but if the base of supplies continues to be in the state, 1000 to 2000 miles away, the cost of living and labor will still be too high to permit the largest development of Alaska's resources.

The remedy in Alaska grows food for the white population. Fortunately back of the snow mountains and glaciers that line the coast there are many thousands among the millions of acres of the interior plateau that are adapted for the production of farm crops and meat. This fact is now fully demonstrated. There are also thousands of acres of tillable land in small areas nearer the sea, conspicuously in the Copper River and Cook Inlet regions, where there is room and a growing demand for a large farming industry.

It is true that miners do not now expect to be replaced by the simple process of calling in another man. Another man may have all the potential ability, but it is years before he can be made as serviceable as the veteran.

Nothing but praise can be spoken of the fire fighters everywhere, from the chiefs of the departments to the little who are really laid, and who ask for nothing more than instructions and an opportunity.

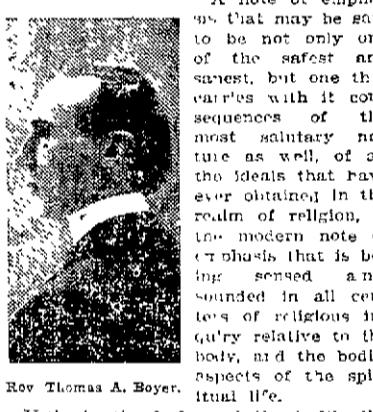

Of those who lose their lives it is to be noted that the men in authority are in a larger proportion than those who have only to obey.

Put when one remembers the number of homes that are desolated every year, and realizes that the insight had by husbands and fathers but for the terrible fates that have overtaken them, there seems such a thing as too much zeal; such a thing as placing the valuation of whole blocks of city property much too high.—St. Louis Times.

MILLER & LUX
LOSE WATER SUIT

Stevenson Estate Succeed in Warding Off Action to Condemn Land.

MERCED, Jan. 10.—The greatest water suit in the history of Merced county involving millions of dollars, worth of irrigation rights ends disastrously for Miller & Lux yesterday when James F. Peck and a selected counsel for the Stevenson estate secured a nonsuit of the hind company's action for $1,000,000 a second feet from the San Joaquin river.

Peck contended that the plaintiffs, alleging a public use on behalf of the county, must prove that the entire county and not a part of it is capable of employing the use.

The case will go to the Supreme Court on appeal.

He argued that one intent of the defense attorney must be mendacious—the allegation that use could be had for the entire year, whereas the defense proved it was available for only the irrigation season of about 165 days.

The original suit began in 1897 as one of the most celebrated in the history of the state, having nearly been decided by a United States Supreme Court injunction in favor of Peck's claim.

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had grown so weak at five years old that it was impossible for me to do any work in school. I suffered most from pain in my left side. I could not sleep on the left side, and was short of breath that I might sleep. I should never be able to take a full breath again. The least exertion would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had to go to a half-bottom of the field. Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. I began to sleep well, and a good appetite, and improved so rapidly that when I had taken six bottles I was completely cured."

Last of Scouts Would Teach
Every American Boy to Ride.

DENVER, Jan. 10.—Every boy should be taught to ride, made to live in the open air as many hours as possible for it is the full-blooded boy of today who is to be the true American of the future, said Colonel W. J. Cody last night in discussing at a local hotel the problem confronting the United States.

"Boys should be taught to ride, in the first place," continued the last of the great scouts of America, because it is the most healthy physical exercise they can have. The good rider brings every muscle into play, and in the saddle controls the horse to control himself and ride him up with flesh air.

"The outdoor life lived by the boy is the thing that carries them into a profitable and safe life. Without my plains life I doubt if I could have got on as I have. To be sure the methods of my generation have changed or been done away with, but still there are plenty of opportunities for free and vigorous young men.

"If Dad now I'd send them to military school, then they would learn that before they can give orders they must learn to take them. They'd learn how to fight in time of peace and be ready for my emergency. If called upon to defend their country in time of war."

The world has been my college, but it is not made me scornful of the advantages of education.

WANTS BALM FOR

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—Clara N. Neelam, until recently a resident of Berkeley, Cal., brought suit in the State Circuit Court, yesterday, against William G. Snow, a wealthy contractor of Hood River, Ore., for $20,000 damages.

The Neelams were married in Kansas City two years ago and had a happy first winter in Hood River. Neelam declared that Snow's alterations to his wife began there and persisted after they moved to Portland.

WIFE TELLS OF PROLONGED CRUELTY

Mrs. Sterling L. Price Is Freed From Bonds of Irksome Union.

Well Known Oakland Couple Had Brief and Unhappy Married Life.

RENO, Nev., Jan. 10.—At a special night session of the divorce court Cleve Baker, the newly elected attorney general of this state obtained last night a divorce decree for Jessamine M. Price from her husband, Sterling L. Price, on the ground of extreme cruelty. Upon hearing the woman's story Judge Moran promptly granted the decree. Mrs. Price was allowed to resume her maiden name of Horton. Both the Price and Horton families are prominent in Oakland, California.

WELL KNOWN LIFE

Sterling L. Price and Miss Jessamine Horton were married Jan. 1, 1909. He is the son of Wallace C. Price, a well known produce dealer in this city, and Mrs. Price was well known in social circles before her marriage.

It was alleged by her in her suit that soon after their marriage her dreams of marital happiness were sadly dispelled for after living with her husband for a few months he began to abuse her in many and various ways, sometimes making threats against her life. Price denied this, however, about the home, in spite of the fact that she was ill in bed and unable to care for herself, she alleged. Not satisfied with that sort of mistreatment, he even struck her in the face causing several of her teeth to knock loose.

THINNIN OF MURDER

In the suit for divorce which was instituted in Reno on July 27, 1911, plaintiff said that her husband threatened to kill her full length of bullet holes to sink her bed and that he kept a loaded revolver and a pillow with a bullet hole in his direction, stating that he hoped to knock it loose and strangle the neck of his wife.

She then notified him that she would leave him and that was the occasion of his saying he would kill her full of lead. Accordingly, the trip to Reno was made out of fear of his temper.

During the engagement of Jessamine Horton to Sterling Price she was the recipient of many favors from her many friends, and as a wedding present was given a handsome home by the father of the groom.

SOCIAL FAVORITE

Because of her beauty and accomplishments she was a favorite in the social world and the many acquaintances of both young people look forward to a happy life for her. The marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Price, 153 Thirteenth avenue, by the Rev. D. Baker, and was attended by a host of friends who offered tokens and congratulations.

PRIDE FOR OAKLAND

"We think your city is great," said Ward Clough of Walla Walla, "I have been more than favorable impressed with the prosperity and ahead spirit of Oakland and consider that it takes a place in the first rank of the great cities. The first rank has been the company of real estate values between the city and Suisun and the other cities of the north. Real estate is worth much more here on account of the wonderful opportunities which lie before this metropolis as a port and a manufacturing and distributing center. Your business blocks are

VISITORS FROM THE NORTH MUCH PLEASED

Inland Empire Excursionists Delighted With Oakland and They Predict Great Growth

Delighted with the hospitality of Oakland and surprised at the phenomenal growth and activity the excursionists from the inland Empire continued on their way this morning after a twenty-four hour stay in the city. They will follow the cars to Los Angeles and spend a few days in that city and its nearby communities.

The business men and their wives who form the personnel of the annual inland Empire excursion number about 160, and are citizens from Spokane and Walla Walla in the northwest, and from other cities in Washington and Idaho. The trip is arranged and managed by the railroads and is under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce as well as the featured points of interest about the city. We have had a splendid time here and when the Oakland people come to Spokane we'll try to show them one just as good.

GREATHY SURPRISED

"I have been much surprised to see how large Oakland really is," said Ward Clough of Walla Walla. "I had no idea of its magnitude and importance as a metropolis, and did not think it was more than half of its size. We have been much interested about its growth and development. It seems to me and could not fail to advertise itself more. It is certainly a beautiful city for situation with the bay before it and the hills behind, and its commercial features are fully equal to its beauty, or rather I should say much greater. You may be sure we shall visit Oakland on our return home, and when we return to our own home."

The party were entertained at a breakfast at the Forum cafe this morning by the Chamber of Commerce and afterward took in the view of the city and bay from the top of the Union Bank of Savings building at the Third and Broadway after which they boarded the train at the foot of Broadway for their next stopping place, San Jose. They will also make stops in the towns along the coast and will go to Redlands and Riverside after they arrive in Los Angeles.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 10.—While the ship rolled in heavy seas, Dr. John Berens, a steerage passenger on the steamer Uranium, from Rotterdam for New York, had his appendix removed by Dr. John Conroy, with the assistance of several doctors.

The operation was particularly hazardous, but it was so successful that with the arrival of the steamer here the patient was allowed to continue on his journey.

WANDERING YOUTH WILLING TO RETURN

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The appeal of Mrs. Mary M. Goodpasture of Los Angeles to Mayor Gaynor resulted yesterday in the detention of her son, John Goodpasture, who set out from San Francisco last August to learn the ways of the sea aboard the ship Dirigo.

On learning the destination of the vessel, the mother wrote Mayor Gaynor, asking that the lad be dismissed from further roaming. Detention took charge of the 15-year-old boy today to await instructions from California. John said he would be glad to go home if the price of a ticket could be obtained.

NEWS OF THE OIL FIELDS

BIG SANTA MARIA DEAL COMPLETED AND CASH PAID

Los Alamos Passes to Los Angeles Company; Forty Acres Sold at $6,250 Each; News From Fields

SANTA MARIA, Jan. 10.—The deal by which the control of the Los Alamos Petroleum Company passes to a Los Angeles syndicate has been completed, and the money has been paid over.

About four years ago John Doherty of Los Angeles, secured a lease on about forty acres of land known as the Ross tract lying just beyond the borders of the then proven field. In spite of the difficulties from every side, the field, including experts and neighbors, Doherty proceeded to organize a company only to be met by the financial panic of two years ago.

He persevered, however, and, backing his judgment to the extent of $30,000, at last succeeded in driving a well down 3185 feet. This he did with the assistance of W. H. Gallagher, in record time.

WELL PROVES GOOD.

The well has proved to be a good one, yielding at times as high as 2000 barrels of oil a day. Owing to heavy gas pressure a sand bridge formed at intervals. This seems now to have been overcome.

The sale was made on the basis of the stock of the company. Doherty owns two-thirds of the stock.

The new owners will proceed to drive another well and further exploit the tract.

The bringing in and sale of this valuable property serves to give great encouragement to the owners of the Ideal lands next adjoining.

The Western Union Company has its well No. 44 cleaned out, and it will be put in the producing list Monday. This company is now operating four rigs in the field and will soon add another on well No. 47.

FISH OUT JUNK.

COALINGA, Jan. 10.—In attempting to get drilling operations again under way at the Aladdin property on section 21, 15, it was found that more than 2000 feet was drilled in the bottom of the well, and was fished out and the electric magnet fishing tool device was again brought into service, disclosing that about everything in the shape of discarded equipment that could be chucked into the hole had been given lodgment in the well.

The magnet fishing tool was kept busy during the entire day bringing to the surface all manner and description of ruined pieces of steel from the well until at a late hour the conglomeration of ruined material that had been removed was fished out.

The articles taken from the bottom of the well included broken and twisted pieces of casing and tubing, heavy sucker rods, water packers and other junk.

The fishing company will be kept on the job until the hole has been cleared as near as possible, when those now operating the property will resume drilling with the view of putting the well in shape for production. It is doubtful now whether the minds of those who have been on the ground and made a thorough investigation of the prospects that a good producer will be developed.

Well No. 2 of the Lucille Oil Company is showing up finely, the management reporting that at least seven hundred barrels of an excellent grade of oil is being produced daily.

ROTARIES MAKE RECORD.

The rotaries at the British California are making a good record. At the well on section 16, 20-15, the hole has been drilled to a depth of 3490 feet and the eight-inch casing landed. This is the longest string of eight-inch casing in the Coalinga field. The same interests that are financing the British California are also operating on section 8, 21-15, on the property of the Canadian Coalinga and have the hole down nearly 3000 feet. Work is commenced on this property only a short time ago.

All the casing at the well of the Beyerster Oil Company has been pulled and as soon as it has again been properly placed drilling will be started with the view of discovering a new oil bearing stratum within a few hundred feet.

The United Development Company is making rapid progress at its wells Nos. 3 and 2 on section 19, 20-15. At No. 3 drilling has been started only a short time and the 10-inch steel pipe casing has been put down for 100 feet. At No. 1 the drill has gone through the cement and eight-inch casing is being put down before drilling will be resumed to greater depth.

The Bohemian Oil Company has overcome its difficulties at its well in the same field and in a few days the drill will be sent deeper into the oil sand that was encountered some time ago.

UNION IN CHARGE.

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 10.—The Union Oil Company, which owns 51 per cent of the stock of the Producers Transportation Company, is in full charge of that company. All of the superintendents and other officers under the old management have been dismissed and Union Oil Company men are now solely in charge.

The Petrolia Oil Company, section 12, 11-24, has completed the rig for its second well.

The Maricopa Queen Oil Company, section 82, 12-23, has completed its No. 2 well and is installing a rotary on the No. 1, which was drilled to a depth of 2300 feet. It will not be completed. The company is preparing to drill No. 2.

The Pacific Midway, section 32, 12-23, has its No. 1 well in good condition, and is producing about 15,000 barrels a month.

The Phoenix Inter-State Oil Company, now Arizona corporation, has spudded its first well on section 3, 11-24.

The Vancouver Midway Oil Company, section 6, 11-23, is in operation. It has been reduced to 100 per cent.

The reduction also includes oil mines in Morris County, N. J., and affects 3500 men. The managers say the low selling price of pig iron made the cut necessary.

The plot thickens.

He went to her home in Fifth street Friday evening to settle up affairs, he says.

"I thought that I heard Neilsen's voice when I entered the place," continued Prindle, "but I didn't suspect a trap. Mrs. Neilsen placed a rocking chair for me to sit in and took a seat in another chair. We talked for some time and then she moved over on the edge of her chair and drew her skirt aside to make room for me, at the same time inviting me to sit beside her. I did so and put my arm on the back of the chair, which was very narrow, so that I could hang on. As I did so she leaned back hard and held my arm fast."

"At this moment Neilsen and her hired man broke into the room and Neilsen's husband had shot to kill his wife.

"I had been twenty years younger, I would have liked them both. They told me to sit down and settle the matter right there. I refused to do so and they threatened to call the police. I insisted that this should be done. The patrol wagon was summoned and I was taken to the police station, but the captain refused to lock me up without a warrant."

Neilsen declares that Prindle's advances were wholly uninvited and that he hurried to protect his wife when she called for help.

AGED CAPITALIST DENIES FLIRTATION

Homer Prindle Declares That He Made No Attempt to Kiss Tena it.

HAN JOSE, Jan. 10.—Homer Prindle, capitalist and former member of the city council, pleaded not guilty yesterday in the charge of his tenant, A. J. Neilsen, that he had attempted by violence to kiss Mrs. Nielsen. Prindle asked for a jury trial and the hearing was set for January 19. He was given his liberty without bail.

The incident upon which the accusation is based occurred Friday night.

When Prindle learned that a warrant had been issued for his arrest, he surrendered. He is a man of mature years and the woman whom he is accused of drawing into an enforced flirtation is 20 years old. Moreover, she is very attractive.

Prindle talked freely of the case and admitted practically that he did not attempt to kiss Mrs. Nielsen. He declared that he was the victim of an extortion plot framed by the woman and her husband. He blames himself.

WOULD LICK NIelsen.

"If I wasn't a man of family I would kick this fellow Neilsen," he said; "but my facts wouldn't let me talk it over cause."

The Neilsens came to his city a few months ago and on November 1 leased Prindle's ranch at Laramie. Neilsen paid $250 down and gave Prindle his note for $350, payable February 1. A month later the pair persuaded Prindle to erase Nielsen's name in the written lease and substitute that of Mrs. Nielsen. They said she had money and it would facilitate business transactions.

January 1, Prindle returned from a business trip to find that the couple had deserted his farm. Mrs. Nielsen had deserted her husband and left him, two young children by a previous marriage, for her to support. Prindle says that he was touched by her story and surrendered the note for $350.

According to the reports the Italian had Abe chasing about the ring at lively rates avoiding the well-aimed left-hand jabs of the little Brooklynite and at the end of the contest his Jeffy was closed and he just saved himself by making game stance and a fast rally such the youngster was not accustomed to. The result of the battle of last night will strengthen the claim of the Mastermatters that Abe is going back, but the dose will have to be repeated before I shall believe that Costa is the master of the champion.

Abe is in the habit of picking out fellows of the Costa type and taking them on without trouble, though it is his wonder to win. If he gets 'what he is reported to have received last evening he secures another match, goes into training and the result is that the fans find that Abe has come back. That is probably the reason for his trouble last evening.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE WILL DROP WEAK
BALL TEAMS

A special meeting of the Oakland Commercial League will be held at the residence of Vice-President Husk and 28 Wayne avenue, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, at which time plans for the reorganization of the league will be discussed. It is the intention to drop some of the weaker teams and substitute stronger ones. In fact a general reorganization will take place. The State League grounds have been secured and two or more games will be played there every Sunday and holidays.

It is not known at present just what teams will be taken in to fill up the gaps made by the leaving teams, but it will be the strongest that can be had, and good, snappy ball is assured.

Livermore Basketball
Team Wins 7 Games

LIVERMORE, Jan. 10.—By winning the basket ball game from the Sphynx team of San Francisco last Saturday night the Company I team of this place won its seventh straight game of the present season and begins to loom up as the possible coast champion ship team.

The game was an exciting one and honors were about even in the first half, but in the latter part of the game the Livermore boys forged ahead, winning by a one-sided score of 44 to 29. The star players of Company I were Charles Sweet and Will B. Bixby.

The Livermore team during the season has defeated the Loyal Sons, the Smilers, the Sacred Heart team, St. Mary's and the Seminoles. The next game to be played is with the Argonauts of San Francisco, which will take place on January 16.

It is quite probable that a game will be arranged between Company I and Company F of Wisconsin, last year's champions. The odds that Dell is a wonder. Griffith is making effort to secure him.

Cincinnati Ball Club
After Pitcher Delhi

CINCINNATI, Jan. 10.—Manager Clarke Griffith of the Cincinnati Club is closing negotiations for the purchase of Pitcher Lee Delhi of the Los Angeles Club, who is being touted to him as a "second Amos Rusie."

Delhi is pitcher in the rough. Manager Dillon has been keeping the youth in practice "under cover" for fear a minor league club would draft him. He is a strapping youngster, just 20 years old, stands 6 feet 3 inches in height and weighs 195 pounds. Besides being the most promising pitcher in the minor league Delhi is a demon "batter" and a game and aggressive athlete. A coast can writes First Baseman Hoblitzel of the Reds that Delhi is a wonder. Griffith is making effort to secure him.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Disorder Which Yields to the Tonic Treatment is This
California Case
Shows.

There is a form of indigestion in which the stomach may be in a perfectly sound condition. This is called nervous dyspepsia and arises from a disturbance of the nervous system which controls the digestive process. That the nerves do control this process is evident from the fact that acute emotions such as grief or despair immediately stop digestion, and that an injury to the brain or a nerve center causes nausea and other disturbances of the stomach.

The digestive fluids such as saliva and gastric juice are the products of the glands which are abundantly supplied with nerve fibers, and the more extended a meal will start the flow of these fluids.

Instances in which this form of nervous trouble was readily cured by the tonic treatment was that of Mrs. E. Burdick of Campbell, Cal. She says:

"Three years ago I had nervous dyspepsia and think it was due to overwork. My stomach did not seem to digest the food and I got so that I could not eat much of anything. This seemed to take my strength away and while I was not confined to bed, I had to give up my work. I was very nervous and easily excited. I could not seem to get any strength and was very poor.

"I was treated by doctors but grew worse, if anything, under their treatment. My daughter read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pill and brought home a box for me to try. Although I had been sick for severa weeks, I was soon helped by the pills. My appetite picked up and the food was digested.

I began to get stronger and in a short time I was cured.

Referring to the incorporation of the Newark Fruit Canning Company of California, the papers of which were filed today in Sacramento, Sol Jacobs, manager, has issued the following statement: "We will commence building operations in a few weeks on our live-tract at Newark, California, which is situated on the main line of the Duarham cut-off, having been secured from the Pacific Land and Investment Company of Newark, Cal.

The plant to be installed will be ready to operate during the coming season, and will be strictly up-to-date, sanitary and modern. In every respect, the cannery will give employment to several hundred people, and will be located in the center of Alameda county, now fast becoming a prominent shipping and manufacturing center.

The League appointed a committee of three to co-operate with City Deputy District Attorney Philip M. Carey, who is drafting a bill for the state-wide regulation of moving picture shows. The League is desirous, together with the State's Attorney, to have a state-wide law should be enacted, setting out only more stringent laws, but also or other theaters and penny arcades, and that some provision be made for local Boards of Censors or a State Board of Censors, without pay.

More than 150 delegates composed of the branches of the Retail Clerks' International Protective Association met in their third annual convention under the auspices of district council No. 8 of the states of California and Nevada, at San Jose.

The visiting delegation was met at the depot by the San Jose committee representing the Building Trades and Labor Councils of San Jose with a brass band and escorted through the main streets to the Labor temple, where the convention convened at 10 a. m. with Max E. Licht, International president, as chairman.
